

The St. John Eudes School Endowment Fund

Please help the St. John Eudes School Endowment further the important educational ministry of the Church. Your contribution will keep the promise of a Catholic education alive for the children of our parish school, now and in the future. Your support is vital to this important mission.

“Those who have been baptized must be trained to live the newness of Christian life in justice and in the holiness of truth. The cause of Catholic education is the cause of Jesus Christ and of his Gospel at the service of man.” Pope John Paul II
